APPROVAL OF MINUTES

On motion made by Commissioner Magnan and duly seconded, the meeting minutes of January 28, 2026 were approved.

2026 LEGISLATIVE INITIATIVES

District Counsel Stone led a discussion on 2026 legislative initiatives.

Assistant District Counsel Brendan Fox, Assistant District Counsel Steve Bonafonte, Janice Flemming-Butler of Strategic Outreach Solutions, LLC and Mike Christ of Levin, Paolino & Christ Government Relations Consulting, LLC Introduced themselves to the Committee on MDC Government.

Commissioner Tierinni made a motion to include the request to increase the bidding threshold from $25,000.00 to $50,000.00, and that become part of the legislative package. The motion was duly seconded and adopted by unanimous vote of those present.

OPPORTUNITY FOR GENERAL PUBLIC COMMENTS

Independent Consumer Advocate Elizabeth Tavelli stated that she has not heard how the legislative agenda has been crafted in the past. She also stated that there was previously a program in Connecticut for low-income household water assistance, but that there is currently no federal funding for the program. She stated that the only program for assistance is currently Generation Power CT. She would like to request that the MDC encourage the General Assembly to revitalize the low-income household water assistance program, and to request state funding for that program until federal funding becomes available.

COMMISSIONER REQUESTS FOR CONSIDERATION OF FUTURE AGENDA ITEMS

District Chairman Currey stated that Commissioner Salemi reached out to him through email to ask lobbyists to ask DEEP to open up a discussion on hydroelectric power. He would like to ask the Water Bureau Chairperson to add the item to the agenda.
